Administrative history / Biographical sketch

---

Note

The County of Hastings was incorporated effective January 1, 1850 under the terms of Canada Statutes 1849, Chapter 78.

Custodial history

Hastings County records have come to the Community Archives in a number of accessions. Minute books and by-laws were transferred from the County offices in June 2016. Assessment rolls and financial records were originally passed to the Archives of Ontario in 1972 by the Hastings County Historical Society. These materials were returned to Belleville in Spring of 2016. A third group of more mixed records was retrieved from the attic of the Hastings County Court House in Belleville, Ontario, between 1993 and 1996 by members of the Hastings County Historical Society.

Scope and content

---

The County of Hastings records include minute books, by-laws, records of committees, plans, submissions to Council meetings, records of the House of Refuge and Home for the Aged.

Series CH/3 F 1700-1: Assessment rolls

Date: 1871, 1879-1906 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

These volumes are records of property values and the taxes levied on the owners of properties in Hastings County. They generally are arranged by township or municipality and record the name and occupation of the owner, the lot and concession number of the property, its value and the amount charged as tax.

The townships and municipalities covered in these rolls are:

This volume covers the following municipalities:

- *Bangor, Wicklow and McClure
- *Carlow
- *Deseronto
- *Dungannon
- *Elzevier and Grimsthorpe
- *Faraday
- *Hungerford
- *Huntingdon
- *Limerick
- *Madoc

- *Marmora and Lake
- *Marmora village
- *Monteagle and Herschel
- *Rawdon
- *Sidney
- *Stirling
- *Tudor and Cashel
- *Tweed
- *Tyendinaga
- *Wollaston

Note that from 1901 the assessment rolls are split across two volumes, with municipalities in the first half of the alphabet in volume 1 and later ones in volume 2. The alphabetical division between the two volumes is not the same in every year, so check the individual description to be sure of ordering the correct volume.

Physical description: 35 volumes

Immediate source of acquisition:

All volumes except the 1871 assessment roll were received from the Archives of Ontario in Spring 2016. The 1871 volume had remained in the custody of the Hastings County Historical Society.
