TO THE PUBLIC.

After a thorough canvass and careful compilation, this Directory is presented to the public by the Publishers, who would here express thanks to all who have kindly responded to the necessary inquiries in gathering much of the information the work contains.

Those not conversant with the business, can not form anything like an adequate idea of the labor connected with it—the difficulties attending it, and the care and system required in its compilation; differing as it does from every other class of book-making, it cannot be lightened by any other previous volume. To be done aright, the work must be done each time anew.

Names will be found arranged strictly alphabetically, according to the spelling of the parties themselves, as given to the canvasser, it being one of the features of Directory compiling that orthography of names—however odd or quaint—be adhered to, simply adding to a name or taking from it one letter, will so alter its place alphabetically as to separate it several pages from the names with exactly the same pronunciation.

The need of a new Directory was apparent to many of your business men, and the call for encouragement in the form of subscriptions and advertising, has been promptly and liberally responded to by many. The Business Directory will be found to be a very complete representation of the business of the city. Should the name of any citizen not appear, it has been unintentionally overlooked.

Those firms whose cards appear in this work are HONORABLE, ENTERPRISING AND LIBERAL DEALERS, and are heartily recommended to public patronage.

In due time, when practicable, a new edition will be issued and improved. Having toiled earnestly and faithfully, conscious of having done our duty, and hoping the work will be received favorably and its usefulness generally felt, this volume is respectfully placed before the public for its approval.

ADVICE TO YOUNG MEN.

Lay it down as a foundation rule that you will be "faithful in that which is least." Pick up the loose nails, bits of twine, clean wrapping paper and put them in their places. Be ready to throw in an odd half hour or hours' time, when it will be an accomodation, and don't seem to make a merit of it. Do it heartily. Though not a word be said, be sure your employer will make a note of it. Make yourself indispensable to him, and he will lose many of the opposite kind before he will part with you. Those young men who are habitually a few minutes late on commencing work, who watch the time to see the very second their working hour is up; who leave, no matter what state the work may be in, at precisely the instant; who calculate the extra amount they can slight their work, and yet not get reproved; who are lavish of their employer's goods, will always be first to receive notice when times are dull, that their services are no longer required. Remember that you are not a slave. Then serve your employer, as, in due time, he will be a friend to you.

WORTH REMEMBERING.

Nobody is more like an honest man than a thorough rogue.

When you see a man with a great deal of religion displayed in his shop window, you may depend upon it, he keeps a very small stock of it within.

Do not choose your friend by his looks ; handsome shoes often pinch the feet.

Don't believe the man who talks the most, for mewing cats are very seldom good mousers.

By no means put yourself in another person's power ; if you put your thumb between two grinders, they are very apt to bite.

Drink nothing without seeing it ; sign nothing without reading it ; and make sure that it means no more than it says.

Don't go to law unless you have nothing to lose ; lawyer's houses are built on fools heads.

In any business, never wade into water where you cannot see bottom.

See the sack open before you buy what is in it ; for he who trades in the dark asks to be cheated.

Keep clear of a man who does not value his own character.
