SECOND PART.

Unveiling Memorial Window in Sunday school Room No. 4, to keep in lasting remembrance the unceasing toil, self-forgetful zeal, and devotion intense, for nearly two-score years, in every department of Bridge St. Church's activities, of Mr. Charles P. Holton. Specially for his affection shown in so many ways to the Bible Class of Ladies, which he taught successfully for over a quarter of a century. The Memorial Window was spontaneously contributed by past and present members of this class.

RESPONSIVE READING.

"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord and in his law doth he meditate day and night."—Psalm 1:1-2.

"Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle; who shall dwell in thy holy hill? He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart. He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour."—Psalm 15:1-3.

"Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments."—Psalm 112:1.

"Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:—Matt., 7:24.

"A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good."—Luke 6:45.

"For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother."—Matt. 12:50.

"But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day."—Prov. 4:18.

"Rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving."—Col., 2:7.

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth, Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."—Rev., 14:13.

"They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever."—Dan., 12:3.

"Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."—Matt., 25:34.

"Lo, a great multitude which no man could number, of all nations and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne and before the Lamb clothed with white robes and palms in their hands."—Rev., 7:9.

"In thy presence is fullness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore."—Psalms 16:11.

SINGING—Hymn 424: "When I survey the Wondrous Cross."

Thanksgiving for the life of Mr. Holton—Mrs. C. H. Elliott.
