GREAT BRITAIN.

letter day in the lives of the London members of the clan, and a glorious sunny day it was. A small party of relations and friends assembled in St. Andrews Presbyterian Church to witness the marriage of Agness Orr Burns to Arthur Gordon Troop of Halifax N. S. The bride was supported by her sister Mary while R. J. Burns, cousin of the bride acted as best man. The bride was given away by Mr. A. MacKay, of Dundee, who also proved himself a tower of strength as master of ceremonies, the service while short was very impressive and the address by the officiating minister, the Rev. J. F. Burns must prove helpful to both parties. After the service the young couple with the guests returned to 46, Gipsy Hall, where congratulations were offered and light refreshments enjoyed.

An interesting item of news connected with the Holden family which is worthy of a place in the columns of the "Seaview Gazette" Donald and I were two of seven gentlemen present at a social evening at the house of mother's niece Mrs. Caldwell, (Lizzie Donnelly) Saturday evening last and the average weight of the seven gentlemen present was 208 lbs. This stupendous showing is hardly likely to repeat itself in a dozen life times. I annex statistics in proof of my words.

- 1 Jack Donnelly, 278 lbs.
- 2 Frank Ramsay, 220 lbs.
- 3 Alex. Ramsay, 225 lbs.
- 4 Orson Shorey, 220 lbs.
- 5 W. A. Caldwell, 196 lbs.
